Tech Lead & Full Stack Software Engineer · Groningen, Netherlands · relocating to the Randstad

ABOUT ME

Full-stack engineer and technical lead with an MSc in Computer Science and a published thesis on code review at Mozilla Firefox. I lead a mixed team of senior and junior developers, owning platform architecture and feature design from requirements through delivery. I remain hands-on across the stack, with deep expertise in backend systems for real-time audio streaming.

WORK EXPERIENCE

DataQueue

- Technical Lead & Full Stack Developer [Jan 2026 – Present]
 - Lead an international team of 5 developers, owning technical planning and architecture for a multi-tenant SaaS platform (5,000+ users) including 3 on-prem/private-cloud deployments
 - Hired and mentored two junior engineers
 - Act as product owner alongside the lead role: work with customers, Business Development, and Delivery to translate feedback into roadmap and technical architecture
 - Remain hands-on throughout: architecting, implementing, testing, deploying. Review all backend code that ships
 - Full Stack Developer [Aug 2025 – Jan 2026]
 - Built an AI voice agent platform with a provider-agnostic integration layer for STT, LLM, and TTS vendors, enabling 20+ providers to be used interchangeably
 - Cut end-to-end response latency in the real-time voice pipeline from 5s to <2s through techniques including streaming, speculative LLM generation, and a DB caching layer
 - Part-time Full Stack Developer [Mar 2024 – Jul 2025]
 - Sole developer maintaining the legacy product through the company's pivot, keeping it stable and demo-ready for sales while developing the replacement
 - Owned a RAG-powered AI WhatsApp chatbot project end-to-end for a customer including communication, scoping, implementation, and delivery
